ACT TODAY TO SAFEGUARD STUDENTS FROM SCAMS

WHY SHOULD WE BE CONCERNED?

- Scams can happen to anyone.
- Being digital natives, students are exposed to common scam contact methods such as messaging platforms, social media and online shopping platforms.
- Students may think they will not fall prey to scams. Hence they may not take measures to protect themselves against scams.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 2022, more than 2,000 scam victims between the ages of 10-19 years old have fallen prey to scams.

WHAT ARE THE COMMON SCAMS AFFECTING YOUTHS?

Social Media Impersonation Scam

Scammers impersonate known contacts or friends on social media, and deceive victims into disclosing personal information and banking details.

Scammers will try to contact victims via mediums such as email, text message or call to deceive them into disclosing personal information and banking details.

Phishing Scam

e-Commerce Scam

Scammers advertise goods and services for sale online but do not deliver it after payment is made by their victims.

Scammers advertise jobs promising high salaries for little effort. They seek upfront payments from victims as part of the job but disappear with victims' money subsequently.
